

16 Feb 2026

Yuvraj - A
RA2431203010028

English Worksheet

Date _____
Page _____

1. The counsellor played a fun game to break the ice and make everyone feel comfortable.
2. As a psychologist, you must learn to read between the lines to understand what a client is really feeling, not just what they say.
3. After the intervention, the student promised to turn over a new leaf and start attending class regularly.
4. The professor's lecture on the subconscious mind gave us a lot of food for thought. I've been thinking about it all day.
5. The statistics exam was difficult, but the practical observation test was a piece of cake.

Part 2: Idioms & Phrases:

1. Burn the candle at both ends
b] to work or study late into the night and get up early in the morning.

Your Sentence:

During exam week, I burned the candle at both ends to finish
my assignment and revise for test.

2. a] to find a hidden meaning or truth that is not explicitly stated.

Your sentence:

By reading between the lines of his message, I realized he was upset
even though he said he was fine.

3. A penny b] Asking someone what they are thinking

Your sentence:

You look worried today - a penny
for your thoughts?

4. b] An obvious problem or difficult issue that people are avoiding discussing.

Your Sentence :

Everyone knew about the mistake,
but no one wanted to talk about the elephant in the room.

5. b] to stay cheerful and hopeful
during difficult times

Your Sentence :

Even after failing the first test, she kept her chin up and worked harder for the next one.