Teaching reading skills: Skimming and scanning

What is skimming?

Skimming is reading a text quickly to find out the general theme, topic or meaning.

It's useful for pre-reading tasks or texts that don't need a lot of detailed attention.

There's no need to read every word.

The focus is on improving speed of reading.

What is scanning?

Scanning is reading a text quickly in order to find specific information e.g. figures or names.

It's useful for answering exam type questions which ask for True / False or to discover facts etc.

The objective is to search out relevant words, collocations etc.

The focus is more on lexis than general meaning and to ignore irrelevant information.
